

ANNIE SIMS BIO

Singer/songwriter Annie Sims has recorded two Country CDs, won a DisCOVERY Award from Music Row magazine, and recently released her first New Thought CD which won a Seal of Excellence from the Positive Music Association.

Annie has performed extensively in the United States and Europe, including a five week, eight country tour as musical guest artist for best-selling Conversations With God author Neale Donald Walsch. She is a featured artist on his website and her music is recommended in his book Home With God. Annie and her husband and producer, Greg, teach Conversations With God Classes in Nashville and were commissioned by Walsch to write a song to accompany his book titled When Everything Changes, Change Everything. The recording is included on CD with a limited edition signed and numbered series of the book.

After Annie founded the first city chapter of the Positive Music Association in Nashville, #1 charting recording artists and Religious Science ministers Dyann and Michael Woody created a Music Director position for her at their Music City Center for Spiritual Living, and they sing her songs each week as part of their regular Sunday services.

Annie's latest commission by Walsch was to create and implement the curriculum for his new Conversations With God School. As Global Director, part of her duties include teaching biweekly lessons on his website in the Online Messenger's School.

Annie is also a CWG Life Coach in Walsch's Spiritual Mentoring Program and she works one-on-one with clients to help them implement the messages in Conversations With God to create a better life.

For more information and to hear Annie's music please visit anniesims.com.